SANATA International Braiding & Natural Hair Care Magazine Model Contest

Ebraiding.net / eNaturals.net is a company formed to organize the hair braiding and natural hair care environment, fight to protect and preserve the rights of hair braiders and natural hair care professionals and provide National Directory and Advertisement Services for hair braiding and natural hair care salons in the United States and Canada. The company's mission is to help uplift the hair braiding and natural hair care industry into a healthy environment, and to promote unity within the hair braiding and natural hair care community. In working with and assisting our members, ebraiding.net seeks to develop standards, rules and regulations for hair braiders and natural hair care professionals so as to enhance the overall growth of the industry.

The company is organizing the First Annual SANATA Magazine Model Contest to celebrate women and beauty.

Requirements and Contest Rules:

1. Open to females of at least 18 years old. No professional experience is required.
2. Enter the contest by registering on the ebraiding.net website (www.ebraiding.net), submitting three (3) photographs per model along with a submission fee of $150 and a signed agreement.
3. All accepted entries will be featured in the 2010 edition of the Magazine
4. When an entry is not accepted, only $100 will be refunded. An administrative fee of $50 will be retained.
5. When selecting entries, the selection team will take into consideration the entries to which professional photos of good quality are attached. Your photos must be judged to be of sufficient quality. This means that you should not submit webcam shots, mirror shots, poorly exposed photos, too grainy, etc...
6. All 3 photographs submitted need to be different. No duplicates, re-crops or manipulations of the same image.
7. The best ten (10) entries will be nominated for award at the Annual Magazine Launching event in Washington, DC during the first weekend of
